The September Newsletter for Our Redeemer Lutheran Church

Notes on September

The Mutual Ministry

Committee is winding up its first ministry review using the resources provided by the ELCIC.

Our excellent Choir begins rehearsing again on Sep 8 at 7pm. If you are not already in the choir but would like to join, contact our choir director, Shayla.

The Craft Group will begin meeting again on Sep 14, 9am to noon, in the fellowship hall or the boardroom. Feel free to drop in!

Come to the ORLC Sing-Along, Saturday, Sep 17 beginning at 5pm. Shayla and Gail will be leading us in familiar songs, both secular and religious, from across the 20th century. There will also be a simple meal with sausages provided by Horst. All are welcome!

Sunday School starts up again on Sep 18 at the Sunday morning worship hour. If you know of any children in your circle of friends or family, invite them to come.

It is hoped that enough teens will have signed up to be able to start the Youth Choir by Sep 21. If you know of any young people, ages 12-17, invite them or let their families know.

This year the Convention of the Southern Interior Conference (ELCIC congregations of the southwest interior of BC) will be held at Faith Lutheran in Kelowna (Rutland area) the evening of Friday, Sep 23, and all day Saturday, Sep 24. More information about times will be forthcoming.

The weekly Bible Study will begin again on Wednesday, Sep 28, Noon to 2pm. Watch the Sunday bulletins for more information on the book or topic that we will study.

Looking Ahead: Mark your calendars for Saturday, October 15 for the ORLC Visioning Session to be led by Keri Wehlander. Next month's newsletter will have more information about it.
